

National Museum of Prehistory Suggested Visit Routes

Recommended Itinerary Add-Ons

+ Exit through the Gift Shop (10 min add-on)

Explore the museum's creative souvenirs inspired by our exhibitions and gifts handcrafted by indigenous artisans.

++ Art at the Museum (30 min add-on)

The museum's artworks serve to highlight its exhibits, with themes that highlight Indigenous Peoples and cultures, the archaeological process, contemporary issues, and historical memory.

- Birthplace of the Rising Smoke by Reretan Pavavalung
- The Scroll of Time by Gieh-Wen Lin
- Sea Wind by Han Hsu-Tung
- The Jialuo Lake Ancient Forest (print) by Chen Yi-Min
- Sashimi by Talaluki
- The Eagle Dance of Kiwit by Suki Sufin
- Lies Canned Food by Flying Fish Mysega (420)
- May My Wings Take Me Home by Siki Sufin
- Double Warriors, Soldiers by Siki Sufin

+++ Family Fun (45 min)

- Interactive and Sensory Displays
  - Austronesian Hall
    - Set Sail with the Tai-Mar Canoe! AR journey
    - Land and Water Tool Walls: Explore eye-catching objects using the touch screen
      - Assemble a fish trap
    - Southeast Asian Convenience Store: Touch the glass to learn about different foods
    - Southeast Asian Trade: Smell the spices
    - Communicating and Identifying Halls: Listen to music
  - Taiwan Natural History Hall
    - Make the animals roar
    - Watch the projection animals hide
  - Taiwan Prehistory Hall
    - Discover ways of life through statues: what are the models doing?
      - Explore the cave
      - Making clay and pottery
      - Burial rituals
    - Pick up model chipped rock tools
    - Touch models of different pottery patterns
    - Projection Game: Smelting Iron (Chinese only)
    - Decorate the life-sized human cutout with jewelry and ornaments

National Museum of Prehistory Suggested Visit Routes

- Exploration Center
  - See our website for more information about our family-friendly, hands-on Exploration Center, open on weekends. Activities include magnetic 3D puzzle pottery, stamp rubbings, coloring pages, and more.
  - Indigenous Story Hall highlights children's books that highlight the journeys of children from different cultures as they learn about their Peoples.
  - Handcraft (DIY) activities may be available during your visit. Typically, advance registration is required. Additional fees may apply. Please see our
- Explore the grounds
  - Run around the turf hillside outside
  - Stroll through the garden