

Special Exhibition of “Themes in Taiwan Literature”

Taiwan is a democratic country that values freedom and diversity. This island nation boasts a vibrant economy and rich cultural heritage. Through this exhibition, we aim to introduce the historical development, cultural uniqueness, and literary achievements of Taiwan to the European public. Several literary themes are also introduced, offering a window for the audience to explore Taiwan’s literature.

This exhibition will take you on a journey to discover this fascinating country, and lead you into the beautiful world of Taiwan’s literature.

Say it with us: Hello, Taiwan!

| Country | City | Date | Venue |
|-------------|------------|-----------------|---|
| U.K. | Edinburg | 07/24-07/31 | Scottish Storytelling Centre |
| | | 08/01-08/10 | Edinburg Central Library |
| Netherlands | Leiden | 09/20-09/21 | Universiteit Leiden Instituut voor Regiostudies |
| Germany | Trier | To be confirmed | Wissenschaftliche Bibliothek der Stadt Trier |
| | | To be confirmed | Universitätsbibliothek Trier |
| Austria | Vienna | To be confirmed | Institut für Ostasienwissenschaften |
| | | To be confirmed | Universitätsbibliothek Wien |
| Czech | Prague | 10/09-10/21 | Museum of Czech Literature |
| | Pardubice | 11/13-11/24 | University of Pardubice |
| Slovakia | Bratislava | 10/09-10/21 | Univerzita Komenského v Bratislave |
| | Kosice | 10/31-11/10 | Štátna vedecká knižnica v Košiciach |
| | Bratislava | 11/20-12/01 | City Library v Mestská knižnica |
| Hungary | Budapest | 10/09-10/21 | The Gate of Dharma Buddhist College |
| | Szeged | 10/31-11/10 | Deák Ferenc Bilingual High School |
| | | 11/20-12/01 | SZTE Klebelsberg Library |